Dear Mrs. Dana S. Hankins:

The Trustees of the 442"d RCT Foundation at its monthly October meeting addressed your inquiry for endorsement to produce a 90-minutes digital media production of Graham Salisbury's award-winning novel, Under the Blood-Red Sun.

We do fully support your mission, as it tends to address challenges facing our younger generation today. They, too, desire to acquire life stories and legacies of the past and be able to apply them in their own world.

We join others in wishing you a successful endeavor with your proposal.

Sincerely,

George M. Nakasato, President
